Clinical Commissioning Evidence Champions

The Innovation Agency has created a unique opportunity to enhance evidence based approaches to commissioning that supports a culture of innovation, improvement and transformation.

Working with Lancaster University, we are able to offer a *fully funded bespoke learning programme designed to:

- Develop knowledge and skills for evidence based approaches to clinical commissioning

- Establish a culture committed to clinical evidence based practice in the commissioning process

- Facilitate application of learning into real workplace practices

- Create a community of practice across the North West

Duration, Attendance and Delivery

This one year programme commences in January 2017 and has been designed to minimise time away from work. A blended learning approach will combine online learning, group workshops, learning sets, personal coaching session and support for work based projects and assessment tasks that will lead to a Post Graduate Certificate in Professional Practice (Evidence Based Commissioning).
